Halton Catholic District School Board

Education Development Charges

(As Amended Effective June 25, 2017)

LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY:

The Education Act provides that a district school board may pass by-laws for the imposition of education development charges (EDC) against land in its area of jurisdiction undergoing residential or non-residential development if there is residential development in the area of jurisdiction of the district school board that would increase education land costs and the residential or non-residential development require one or more of the actions identified in section 257.54(2) of the Education Act;

Education development charges shall be imposed against all lands, buildings or structures undergoing residential and non-residential development if the development requires one or more of the following:

- a) the passing of a zoning by-law or of an amendment thereto under section 34 of the Planning Act;
- b) the approval of a minor variance under section 45 of the Planning Act;
- c) a conveyance of land to which a by-law passed under subsection 50(7) of the Planning Act applies;
- d) the approval of a plan of subdivision under section 51 of the Planning Act;
- e) a consent under section 53 of the Planning Act;
- f) the approval of a description under section 9 of the Condominium Act, 1998; or
- g) the issuing of a permit under the Building Code Act, 1992 in relation to a building or structure.

PURPOSE OF EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT CHARGES:

Education development charges are used to fund the acquisition of school sites and related costs to accommodate growth-related pupil needs.

EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT CHARGE BY-LAW PROCESS:

The Halton Catholic District School Board held a Public Meeting on May 21, 2013 and subsequently the Board adopted an Education Development Charges (EDC) by-law on June 18, 2013. The effective implementation date for the Board's EDC by-law is June 24, 2013. The By-law has a term of five (5) years. The Board amended the 2013 EDC By-law at its meeting held on June 20, 2017, which amendments came into force on June 25, 2017.

EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT CHARGE RATES:

The 2013 Halton Catholic District School Board EDC By-law (as amended effective June 25, 2017) imposes residential and non-residential education development charges on development of all lands within the Region of Halton.

EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT CHARGE RATES (cont'd)

The applicable rates are as follows:

	Residential Development	Non-Residential Development
$ / new unit (as defined in the EDC By-law)	$2,269.00
$ / sq. ft. of gross floor area (as defined in the EDC By-law);		$0.58 / sq. ft. or
$ / sq. m. of gross floor area		$6.24 / sq. m.

The education development charge is additional to charges levied by other Boards and government bodies.

BY-LAW EXEMPTIONS:

In addition to the statutory exemptions required under the Education Act and set out in the By-law, a number of non-statutory exemptions were approved by the Board. The exemptions are as follows:

- a) the Region or a local board thereof;
- b) a municipality or a local board thereof;
- c) a board as defined in section 257.53(11) of the Act;
- d) a public hospital receiving aid under the Public Hospitals Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. P.40;
- e) a publicly-funded university, community college or a college of applied arts and technology established under the Ontario Colleges of Applied Art and Technology Act, 2002, S.O. 2002, c.8, Schedule F, as amended;
- f) a seminary of learning maintained for educational purposes that offers courses accredited by the Ministry of Education, which is exempt from taxation under the Assessment Act, the whole profits from which are devoted or applied to such purposes;
- g) non-residential agricultural buildings or structures that are owned by and are used for the purposes of a bona fide farming operation;
- h) a place of worship owned by a religious organization that is exempt from taxation under the Assessment Act that is used primarily as a place of public worship;
- i) A cemetery or burying ground that is exempt from taxation under the Assessment Act; and
- j) Metrolinx (formerly Go Transit)

TIMING OF PAYMENT OF EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT CHARGES:

Education Development Charges are payable in full to the municipality in which the development takes place, on the date a building permit is issued.
