

SEPARATE SCHOOL ASSESSMENT LEASE

A Separate School Lease Agreement allows people who jointly own or rent a property to designate school support to the Separate School Board when one of the owners or tenants is non-Roman Catholic.

The Separate School Lease Agreement allows the Roman Catholic joint owner or tenant the right to designate the school support for the non-Roman Catholic owner or tenant. Otherwise, the English-Public default designation applies as required by the Assessment Act.

Only one school support designation is allowed for each household (e.g., a self-contained residential unit) and only Roman Catholics may support a Catholic (Separate) Board.
